Finance Services

Funding programs for investment and innovation

Berlin offers attractive funding opportunities for all phases of business development – from start-up to growth financing. Financial incentives range from public loans, guarantees, and equity capital, to direct grants for investment and innovation projects.

What is part of the Finance Service?

Are you planning to settle in Berlin, do you want to grow at the location, or are you planning an innovation project? Our experts will find the right financing solution and provide you with valuable information on how to apply for funding. We work closely with project sponsors, development banks, and potential financing partners at the state, federal, and EU levels.

This is how it works:

Together, we discuss the plans for your project, which should ideally already be available in the form of a project description or a business plan. We will check with you which funding and financing instruments come into consideration, establish contacts with relevant players, and provide you with important information for your application.
